Recycle Your Christmas Tree Extended until January 8, 2017

Drop off your Christmas tree at UBC Botanical Garden and it will be chipped into mulch to line our trails and paths. Suggested donation $5. All proceeds benefit John Norquay Elementary's garden program. Learn more.

January in the Garden

It's a truism to say the weather is difficult to predict. I'm not talking about the day-to-day kind of weather, but about longer-term prognostications. Who could have predicted the snow and cold temperatures of December 2016, for example? Well, I did...

Turn Over a New Leaf: Become a Volunteer!

We offer something for everyone, from beginner to experienced garden enthusiasts. From our popular Tourism Challenge to summer tours to October's Apple Festival, we have lots of ways to get involved in this amazing place.

No green thumb? No problem! We provide training for volunteers with many backgrounds including customer service, public speaking and event assistants. Our active season is March through October and we have lots of ways for you to go green in 2017.

Sign up to volunteer here. For more information or questions, contact garden.volunteer@ubc.ca, visit our webpage, or attend our Winter Orientation by registering today!

Shop & Garden Centre January Update

The Shop in the Garden is closed for the holiday and will reopen on January 9. Our staff will be going on their annual buying trip soon and the new merchandise they find will be arriving in the Shop beginning in February. Happy New Year and a big thank you to our loyal customers for a very successful 2016! Learn more.
