Join us for Down to Earth: Tips & Tricks for Spring Gardening on May 13! Take part in this interactive event: watch demonstrations, join a workshop, take a tour and find out how to have a successful spring gardening season. Got questions? Ask our Hortline Master Gardeners and all our volunteers and experts. Learn more.

May in the Garden

What can we expect in the garden this May? A few April flowers, I think. This spring is going down as one of the wettest and coolest on record, and this has pushed back flowering considerably. Read more on our blog.

Vietnam Expedition 2017

Read Douglas Justice's personal account of his incredible and at times, harrowing, journey with curator Andy Hill. Together they trekked remote stretches of Northern Vietnam in search of rare and wonderful plant specimens. Read more.

Grow Green on Display

Our partnership with Metro Vancouver is on display in our fantastic demonstration garden bed designs that our Horticulture Training Program students have made. Come see for yourself or view options for your own yard on their website.

Shop & Garden Centre May Update

We've had a makeover! Wooden tables have been replaced by metal benches and the Garden Centre looks beautiful, filled with rhododendrons, azaleas, conifers, native plants and other perennials such as Astilbe, Hosta and Lillium. There's lots for your food garden - blueberries, blackberries, raspberries, strawberries and herbs. More plants are arriving weekly so please pay us a visit. Learn more.
