Save the Date: Treasured Bulb Sale, Saturday, September 23

Back-to-school time signals it is time for our annual Treasured Bulb Sale! Find specialty bulbs and unique finds at this annual sale hosted by the Friends of the Garden \(FOGs\). Experts on hand to answer all of your gardening questions. Learn more.

August in the Garden

I thought it might be appropriate to continue the maple theme I introduced in the previous blog post, as their leafy canopies are no less welcome in August than in July. There are certainly plenty of Acer species left to talk about. Read more on our blog.

Waterwise Workshop with Egan Davis

Learn techniques for designing and caring for your water wise garden with Horticulture Training Program instructor Egan Davis. This class will enhance your knowledge of plants and provide you with effective watering strategies that will enable you to have a well tended garden with a low impact on our water supply systems. Date and time: August 24, 2017, 5:30pm - 8pm. Cost: $22-$25. Register.

About the Garden

Established in 1918, UBC Botanical Garden curates a collection of approximately 50,000 accessioned plants representing approximately 7,000 taxa from temperate regions around the world.

Follow us on Twitter, Facebook, and Instagram. Our handle is @ubcgarden.

Nitobe Tea Ceremony

Take part in an authentic Japanese tea ceremony at Nitobe Memorial Garden hosted by the Urusenke Foundation. Last Saturday of every month. Next ceremony: Aug 26. Please call 604.939.7749 to make a reservation. Cost $10.

Shop & Garden Centre August Update

It's not too late for vines - Clematis and other climbers are on sale for $10. Or, pick up a perennial or two (or three!), perfect for summer planting. We're crazy about German-made scissors which are great in the kitchen for cutting parsley, chives or basil. Or, find a great bowl for your summer salad or pasta — we have colourful tableware options in polka dots, owls, and other nature themes. Learn more.
