

Hydrangea febrifuga by Douglas Justice

October in the Garden

October is a popular time in the garden. Almost everyone notices the seasonal changes in plants because of the transition from the cool, restful shades of green to the warmer hues presented by leaves and berries. Whether we look forward to the duller, soggy days ahead, we can still appreciate nature's subtle signaling. Fruits of many sorts are prolific this year and October will be a boon for people (and birds, as well).

Read more

Apple Festival

October 13 - 14

Join us for our 27th celebration of Apple Festival this October 13 & 14, from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. This all ages, rain-or-shine event will provide participants with opportunities to learn about the diversity of one of BC's favourite fruits and to taste unusual and rare apple varieties.

Read more

Fall Volunteer Orientation

Get to know the volunteer opportunities at UBC Botanical Garden during our Autumn Orientation on October 11, 4 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. We will be highlighting volunteering opportunities at Apple Festival.

Read more

Apple Festival Volunteering

We need volunteers for 3 hour shifts at Apple Festival October 13 & 14. We look forward to having your assistance! This fun family event is hosted by The Friends of UBC Botanical Garden Volunteer group.

Read more

Thank you for supporting UBC Botanical Garden.

Share this email:

Manage your preferences | Opt out using TrueRemove®
Got this as a forward? Sign up to receive our future emails.
View this email online.

6804 SW Marine Drive
Vancouver, British Columbia | V6T 1Z4 CA

This email was sent to .
To continue receiving our emails, add us to your address book.

