

Entertainment Schedule

Saturday, October 15, 2022

Schedule is subject to change without notice

Time	West Entrance Small Stage	Great Lawn Main Stage
12:00-12:45	Michael Burnyeat &amp; Kosta Borzhinov: Michael plays fiddle and Kosta the accordion. They play lively Celtic, Folk and World music with energy and style.	JES: Jane, Ellen and Susan play and sing from a wide range of genres with some old and some new tunes in harmony.
1:00-1:45	Tim Readman and Prairie Wolfe: Tim is a musician, singer, songwriter, producer and music journalist that engages the audience with his stories and songs. Prairie Wolfe has a rhythmic, driving fiddle style that blends well with Tim's guitar playing and gets toes tapping.	Blackthorn Blossoms: Michael Viens and Rosie Carver perform lively celtic tunes. They are also know for their performances in Blackthorn who have played at Apple Festival many times.
2:00-2:45	Maria Ho and Bob York: Maria will sing, swing and groove to jazz and Brazilian rhythms where music is the universal language that will bring people together. She will be accompanied by Bob York on keyboard and bass.	Michael, Lynn and Michael: They are Michael Pratt, Lynn McGown and Michael Burnyeat. All are well known and active folk musicians from Vancouver who also teach their instruments and songs at the Open Door Music School.
3:00-3:45	Tom and Ellen: They sing in harmony and play banjo, guitars, mandolin and whistle. Their music is reminiscent of Pete Seeger's hay days. They will love you to sing along to their music.	The Trout Lake Trio: Jane, Kitty and Bernard are all seasoned folk musicians who have joined together to blend their voices and instruments and unique styles in new and exciting ways.

Time	Children's Area
1:30-2:30 (30 mins)	Anthony Blackman: Expertly played steel drum that both energizes and soothes.
11:30, 12:00, 12:30, 1:00	Story time: many include puppets, marionettes or stuffed toys (each approx. 15-20 mins)

Time	Roving
10:00-10:45	Michael Burnyeat &amp; Kosta Borzhinov: entertain the lineup
11:00-11:30	Anthony Blackman: Steel drum (From the entrance to the Children's area)
12:00-3:30	Tiddley Cove Morris Dancers: British traditional dancing with roots back to medieval times.

Time	Moongate Tunnel
11:30-3:30	Rebecca Blair: harp

For more information about this year's performers visit applefestival.ca and look for Entertainment.

Entertainment Schedule

Sunday, October 16, 2022

Schedule is subject to change without notice

Time	West Entrance Small Stage	Great Lawn Main Stage
12:00-12:45	Luc LeMans: A Pop/Folk singer and instrumentalist whose repertoire ranges from pop-rock barn burners to funky R&amp;B confections.	The Lawless Firm: American standards played in Gypsy Jazz style with some country and blues. Michael on guitar, Edgar on jazz violin, Joe on bass and vocals by Eleanor.
1:00-1:45	Sangre Morena: Elsa and Jose perform Latin American songs with passion and flare.	The Wheat in the Barley: The Wheat in the Barley pulls together a lot of great influences into one package: Celtic, Slavic, French Canadian, Yiddish, Cajun and more.
2:00-2:45	Dragonfly: Gian Ward and Dave Adam. Dragonfly is a vocal and guitar duo playing a mixture of contemporary music and jazz standards.	The Hot Teas: Former UBC students sing a cappella sing a wide ranging repertoire using vocal jazz techniques reminiscent of Bobby McFerrin.
3:00-3:45	Sangre Morena: Elsa and Jose perform Latin American songs with passion and flare.	The InCiders: This trio has been musically storytelling through expressive lyrics to songs enhanced by fiddle, guitar, flute, whistle, recorder, quena &amp; harmonica.

Time	Children's Area
12:00-2:00-3:00 (30 mins)	Anthony Blackman: Expertly played steel drum that both energizes and soothes.
11:30, 12:30, 1:00	Story time: many include puppets, marionettes or stuffed toys (each apox. 15-20 mins)

Time	Roving
11:00-11:30	Anthony Blackman: Steel drum (From the entrance to the Children's area)
1:30-3:00	The Vancouver Morris Men Dancers: British traditional dancing with roots back to medieval times.

Time	Moongate Tunnel
11:30-3:30	Judy Henry: harp

For more information about this year's performers visit applefestival.ca and look for Entertainment.