

Schedule

Saturday

Main Stage

11:15-11:45

Tiddley Cove Morris Dancers

This women's Morris dancing group reinterpret the ancient English ritual traditions of Morris dancing in a contemporary West Coast style.

12:00-12:45

JES

This group plays and sing songs from a wide range of genres, with some old and some new but always in tight harmony.

1:00-1:45

Blackthorn Blossoms

This popular Duo are back this year performing lively Celtic, English and French Canadian tunes while playing flute, whistle, guitar, fiddles, bass and bodhran.

2:00-2:45

The Wheat in the Barley

These four talented performers pull together a lot of influences into one package: Celtic, Slavic, French Canadian, Yiddish, Cajun

3:00-2:45

Trout Lake Trio

are all seasoned folk musicians who have joined together to blend their voices, their instruments and their unique styles in new and exciting way

West Stage

10:30-11:30

Michael Burnyeat and Kosta Borzhinov (at entrance gate)

11:00-11:30

Anthony Blackman

Plays the steel drums

12:00-12:45

The InCiders

Musical story telling through expressive lyrics to songs enhanced by fiddle, guitar, flute, whistles and harmonica.

1:00-1:45

The M&M's

Are the centre of the Folk Music world in Vancouver for many years. All are active folk musicians who also teach at the Open Door Music School.

2:00-2:45

Tom and Ellen

sing in harmony and play banjo, guitars, mandolin and whistle. Their music is reminiscent of Pete Seeger's hay days.

3:00-2:45

The Fraser/Henderson Duo

A Vancouver duo that performs acoustic/electric (guitars/banjo) folk/pop/roots music (covers and originals). One of their favourite things to do is play music for community events.

Children's Area

12:30-1:00

Anthony Blackman

Plays the steel drums

1:00-1:30

Storyteller

1:00-1:30

Tiddley Cove Morris Dancers

1:30-2:00

Anthony Blackman

Plays the steel drums

2:00-2:30

Storyteller

2:30-3:00

Anthony Blackman

Plays the steel drums

Moon Gate

11:30-3:30

Harpist: Rebecca Blair

Rebecca regularly gives harp workshops in Vancouver as well as studies Irish dance

Schedule

Sunday

Main Stage

11:20-11:45

The Vancouver Morris Men Dancers

12:00-12:45

The Lawless Firm

They will play and sing American standards played in Gypsy Jazz style as well as some country and a little blues.

1:00-1:45

Jim Edmondson & Madeleine deLittle

What better than to playfully sing good songs together. Come and join Madeleine De Little, Michael Burnyeat and Jim Edmondson.

2:00-2:45

The Hot Teas

This "acappella" group sing a wide ranging repertoire using vocal jazz techniques reminiscent of Bobby McFerrin.

3:00-3:45

Dragonfly

From varying backgrounds of jazz, blues, rock and folk, they have been playing together for over 10 years. Their music is an eclectic mix of jazz standards and contemporary tunes, including many of their own arrangements.

West Stage

10:30-11:30

Michael Burnyeat and Kosta Borzhinov (at entrance gate)

11:00-11:30

Anthony Blackman

Plays the steel drums

12:00-12:45

Michael and Kosta

Michael on fiddle and Kosta on accordion play lively Celtic, Folk and world music with energy and style.

1:00-1:45

Sangre Morena

Elsa and Jose, well known around town and from many performances at Applefest, perform Latin American songs with passion and flare.

2:00-2:45

The Musical Breeze Duo

Sing, swing and groove to jazz and Brazilian rhythms and pop classics where music is the universal language that will bring people together.

3:00-3:45

Sangre Morena

Elsa and Jose, well known around town and from many performances at Applefest, perform Latin American songs with passion and flare.

Children's Area

12:30-1:00

Anthony Blackman

Plays the steel drums

1:00-1:30

Storyteller

2:00-2:30

Storyteller

2:30-3:00

Anthony Blackman

Plays the steel drums

Moon Gate

11:30-3:30

Harpist: Judy Henry

Lovely classical, wistful Celtic, folk music of the British Isles, early music, sacred and selected popular. Judy maintains an active studio in White Rock B.C. (flute, piano, Celtic harp and music theory) and performs all over the Lower Mainland